

Ask me why

by G. Smith

1:

Ask me why
I don't promise forever anymore
I don't trust my own feelings like before
Let alone those of others

Ask me why
I'm not hiding my tears in the sun
I'm no longer pretending to have fun
It intrigues me who bothers

Chorus:

Things that I fear
Are with me in my head, always here
I'm not thinking ahead 'cause I know
I have been where I go

2:

Ask me why
I don't trust spoken word nowadays
I find pledges and oaths out of place
I prefer written contracts

Ask me why
I'm not grieving when friends go away
I don't really expect them to stay
Only few keep in contact

Chorus:

Things that I fear
Are with me in my head, always here
I'm not thinking ahead 'cause I know
I have been where I go

3:

Ask me why
I don't ask you to use your own head
Why I ask you to ask me instead
It saves time and frustration

Ask me why
People always ask questions like these
Everyone seems to do as they please
Without any discretion

Chorus:

Things that I fear
Are with me in my head, always here
I'm not thinking ahead 'cause I know
I have been where I go
