

Jerk with a plan

by G. Smith

The sky is getting dark
I'm headed for the park
I feel just like I'm walking for the first time

My sweaty T shirt reeks
I haven't shaved in weeks
But all this mess I am feels suddenly right

I am not over you
I am not over you
But I have learned to breathe and move again

A man with messy hair
I couldn't seem to care
This wicked head is bound to form a plan

We're through, but what the heck
I know I want you back
And I won't stop, my path leads right to you

I know I want you, babe
I know you want me, too
I'll make amends, I'll make your dreams come true

Pre

I wanna sacrifice
I wanna make it right
I'll fight
Till my slate is blinding white

Chorus

You'll take me back again
I'll be a better man
I'll give you all I can

I'm just a lover's fool
I'm breaking every rule
But I'd go straight to jail to make you stay

Drive faster than before
I'll download even more
And I'll cross every red light on my way

Or I'll find myself some work
And be begging like a jerk
I'd even be a clerk, so you know I care

I'll even cut my hair
And wash the stuff I wear
From now on I will always treat you fair

Be friendly and polite
And sober every night
I promise you won't recognize this man

The sky is cold and dark
I'm running through the park
I'm still a bum but now I've got a plan

Pre

I wanna sacrifice
I'll fight
With my teeth all shining white

Chorus

You'll take me back again
I'll give you all I can

Fade out

I'll be a brand-new man

I promise you I can

Just give me one more chance

I'll even learn how to dance ...
