

You're always right

by G. Smith

Verse 1:

Look at me
Can you tell?
You've known me all my life, but never well

Here I stand
One last time
Never leaving was my biggest crime

It doesn't matter
What I say
(Cause) you know better
Anyway

You never listen
So why do I
Still try to speak

Chorus:

This same old fight
It's gone too far
You're always right, except you rarely are

And I can't change
Your constant lies
You are a stranger with familiar eyes

This same old fight
It's all we've got
You're always right, except you're clearly not

One thing's on me
I didn't go
Like I was told by everyone I know

Verse 2:

Look at you
Always smug
You're a lonely, sorry, friendless fuck

Here you stand
And you preach
As if you had anything to teach

You know your punch lines
Play your part
You've never had one talk
Straight from the heart

You'll never listen
So I give up
This is good-bye
